

Workforce Development Now & Later

April 16, 2021

Greg Wilson, University of Georgia

IAWP Workforce 360 2021

Now

What are the current conditions that may impact the future of workforce development?

Unemployment

What's been the overall unemployment trend for the US over the past 15 months?

What has been the situation in your state?

Civilian Labor Force

How has the US civilian labor force fared over the past 14 months?

Why is this an important number to watch?

≠ Unequal Impact Across the US Workforce

How has the total US employment level been impacted since January 2020?

How has employment loss been distributed across the workforce?

Check out www.tracktherecover.org to find data on your state or metro area.

How had the impact been distributed?

Geographically:

Sex:

Race:

Related Factors that Influence Workforce

What observations do you have on these factors?

Can you identify any other factors that you are seeing in your community or state?

The Current Workforce Conundrum

Solve this puzzle:

What are some of the factors at play in this conundrum?

How can workforce professionals help?

Additional Notes and Reactions

Later

What are the forecasted trends and changes that will impact the future of workforce development?

Economic Recovery Forecast

Occupational & Industry Projections

Projecting the New Normal

Carl Vinson
Institute of Government
UNIVERSITY OF GEORGIA

Work is Going to Look Different

So What?

Find the breakout room instructions: <https://bit.ly/3g8DlAe> or

Greg Wilson • gjwilson@uga.edu • linkedin.com/in/georgiagreg/

Carl Vinson
Institute of Government
UNIVERSITY OF GEORGIA